Dear Marjorie

Received your enclosed letter and I don't ~~so~~ like the poetry you wrote. I would appreciate it much more if you told me all about your love life, or something ~~or~~ or about some dizzy dame in your circle.

So Long.

I'm still O.K. and Eloy is still waiting to hear from you, so get some one to ~~write~~ write to him in Spanish, (don't forget the smokes)

I feel tired a bit, and could use a long rest to get me back to tip top shape again. So you can help a bit by writing me interesting letters. What about the things around you and what does your Maw and Paw think of Communists, especially those who go to Spain to fight parents, to the rest of your brothers or sisters (if any) on our side or do you live in a house divided as my family is - Do you still want to go to school and have ambitions of becoming a school teacher or what - These are the things that interest me, just plain every day troubles and experiences —

Time is short and night is falling

So Long,

Harry
